

New Central Committee Will Manage Honor Study Hall

Reliability, fairness, and a sense of justice are the essential requirements for membership on the Central Committee. In order to receive this honor, a junior must have good judgment, good grades, and the recommendation of the faculty and the present Central Committee.

New Central Committee members: Mike Partington, Douglas Havighurst, Ted Bynum, Carol Story, Karen Macey, and Jinny Sifritt.

This month after much deliberation, the six new leaders of next year's Honor Study Halls were chosen. The three boys chosen to be members are Ted Bynum, Doug Havighurst, and Mike Partington. Sharing the honor with the boys are Carol Story, Karen Macey, and Jinny Sifritt.

These present juniors will promote veritable democracy in Shaker by running the Honor Study Halls with efficiency and justice. It will be their job to deal with all problems concerning the study halls. All complaints which are registered concerning the advisors or the members of Honor Study Hall will be brought before the committee and investigated. The committee will take charge of admitting new members to Honor Study Hall, appointing advisors, and selecting the Central Committee members for the following year.

It is an honor and a privilege to be a member of the Central Committee which is such a vital part of our school life.

Honor Day Signifies Farewell; Seniors Look to Commencement

The beginning of the end was what Honor Day symbolized for the seniors. This annual assembly was a dress rehearsal for the culmination of three years' work—the graduation exercises. The end will come when the seniors march out of the stadium with diplomas in hand.

Tuesday, May 29 at 1:30 the school gathered to see the seniors honored for their various activities during high school. After the processional which was accompanied by Mr. Ellis at the organ, Bill Benson introduced the president of the senior class, Michael Blane. He presented the senior class gift to the school. Following Mr. Rupp's response, the remainder of the program was given over to the presentation of awards and new officers.

Mr. Rupp announced the awards which the school offers and also the college scholarships. The new members of the Central Committee and Demerit Panel and the officers of Social Council were named by Peter Harwood, Mary Miller, and Walter Freedman, respectively. Immediately after the installation of the new Student Council officers, Jack Freund took over the job of presidency of the organization.

On June 8, at 8:30, the 348 members of the graduating class of 1956, clad in cap and gown, will march slowly down the aisle to Mr. Ellis' accompaniment on the organ. Depending upon the weather, the commencement exercises will be held in either the stadium or the auditorium. If it is held in the auditorium, the ceremony will be broadcast over the Public Address System to the Excitement, mingled with school spirit, filled the small auditorium, when twelve sophomores and juniors competed in the final tryouts for the six open positions for the cheerleading squads.

Cheerleaders' Squad Sparks School Spirit

The climax of a month of practicing and excitement came on May 24 when, beginning promptly at 3:30, the prospective candidates showed their talents. Each girl went through one cheer of her choice and also one original cheer.

After deliberating thoughtfully for longer than an hour, the judges, who were this year's cheerleaders, decided that the new members of the squad would be juniors Joan Karlovec, Liz Gould, and Betsy March and sophomores Peggy Leunk, Ellen Sherby, and Pat Tenbeau. Not to be outdone by the girls, two junior boys, Frank Crouse and Bill Hallet will add pep and vigor to the group next year.

Following the try-outs, the old and new cheerleaders ate dinner at the home of Jane Watterson.

Later that night, the happy girls and boys went home eagerly looking forward to their new positions on next fall's cheerleading squad.

Citizenship Trophies Go to Miller and Zilber

At Shaker Heights High School's annual Honor Day Assembly held Tuesday, May 29, at 1:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium, the 1956 Shaker Square Association Trophies were awarded to Mary Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of 3658 Stoer Road, Shaker Heights, and Maurice Zilber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Zilber of 19436 Van Aken Boulevard.

The highest honor a Shaker High student can attain, the Citizenship Award is made each year to one young man and one young woman in the twelfth grade who are considered by vote of their classmates to excel in character, in service to the school, and in scholarship.

In February both Mary and Maurice were among 40 seniors awarded gold Scholarship Keys for maintaining better than a B+ average from the ninth through the first semester of the twelfth grade. Both have been active in activities in their high school years.

Mary has been Student Council vice-president, chairman of the booster force, chairman of the demerit panel, Student Council secretary (junior year), sophomore Y-Teen vice-president, and a member of the drama production club and honor study hall. She will attend Wellesley College this September.

Maurice has been editor of the high school news bureau, treasurer of athletics, chairman of the civics committee, high school newspaper reporter, P.A. technician, and member of the social council and chess club. He will attend the University of Michigan this September.

Other seniors nominated for the Citizenship Award and receiving Book Awards were Nancy Williams, editor-in-chief of the newspaper, chairman of the student leadership committee of the Community Chest, and Student Council member, Marcia Boukalik, yearbook editor-in-chief, Scholarship Key winner, and member of Student Council and demerit panel; Jim Greene, newspaper sports editor, vice-president of the senior class, and member of choir, student Council, Hi-Y, and demerit panel; and Dennis Goodman, member of varsity football and basketball teams all three years, Scholarship Key winner, and member of Student Council and central committee.

The list of qualification considered in voting for the Citizenship Awards is as follows:

- 1 Service to the school
- 2 Adequate scholarship
- 3 Honesty
- 4 Friendship
- 5 Leadership, the ability to command respect and to co-operate
- 6 Willingness to accept responsibility, desire to advance
- 7 Courteous manner, neat appearance
- 8 Desire for improvement
- 9 Keen sense of values

We Say Goodbye And Good Luck

With the leaving of the seniors, many faces will be missed around the halls of Shaker. Unfortunately for the underclassmen, the seniors are not the only ones who will be gone next year. With mixed emotions five members of our faculty will bid their adieux also.

Miss Louise Hollon, dean of girls for so many years, has decided to leave her office on the second floor for a new ranch-style home in Lansing, Michigan, where she will live with her sister. At the present time, Miss Hollon has no definite plans for her future, although she hinted that she might take some courses in natural science at Michigan State University.

Also preparing their farewells to Shaker are Mr. Kenneth Mowrey, Mrs. Louise Finch, Mrs. Mary Lou Unger, and much-loved Mr. Crosby Ramey. To you staff members may we say good-bye. We will miss you but we shall think about you often. In all your endeavors, good-luck.

Gristmill

Pages 3 and 4 of this issue are devoted to pictorial coverage of senior activities, prepared by the new Gristmill staff, and to the Shakerite's Senior Directory. These pages are intended as a supplement for the Gristmill. Cut off the strips of ads, fold, and paste or clip in your year-book.

Four Seniors, Two Juniors To Govern Demerit Panel

If one accumulates a total of five demerits, he receives a letter to appear before a committee of students headed by the vice-president of the Student Council. This committee is known as the Demerit Panel.

New Demerit Panel members: Robbie Cox, Bill Carlson, Art Geigel, Irene Stifel, Emilie Stark, and Anne Herzog.

The Demerit Panel is composed of seven members, the vice-president, two senior boys and girls, and one junior boy and girl. The seniors serve for one year, and the juniors, for two. The members are chosen by the preceding panel and the deans, and the standards used are scholarship, citizenship and contribution to the school.

The job of the panel is to discuss with the individuals the reasons for having received five demerits. Then they suggest improvements such as arriving at 8:15 a. m. instead of 8:35.

After interviewing the individual and reviewing his case, the Demerit Panel recommends to Mr. Morris or Miss Hollon action which they feel appropriate. This can range from the removing of the demerits, to a letter home to the individual's parents, or suspension from school.

When one has received three demerits a warning letter is sent out. It takes one month to work off one demerit, and two months to work off three. This year's panel consisted of seniors: Mary Miller, chairman, Ronnie Loeser, Marcia Boukalik, Ken Berns, and Jim Greene; and juniors: Emilie Stark, and Bill Carlson.

Next year's panel will consist of seniors: Dick Horowitz, chairman, Emilie Stark, Bill Carlson, Anne Herzog, Art Geigel; and juniors: Irene Stifel and Robbie Cox.

To The Seniors

"It's a time for joy, a time for tears. . . ." Those words have made a lot of money for a relatively new singing group called the Rover Boys. One reason for the sale of this record, "Graduation Day," is that its words have a meaning and an appeal to graduates all over the country. Graduation, or Commencement as we at Shaker prefer to call this occasion, is a time for joy. We look forward to a brand-new life as we realize that Commencement is one of the first big steps toward adulthood. Yet, June 8 will also be a time for tears because of the sadness that comes with the thought of leaving the many friends with whom we have gone through school. Many people will say that they can't wait to leave and "get out of this place." We're all tired of homework, all looking forward to the freedom summer brings, and the new experience of college or career. But look back upon your three years of high school and see if you don't feel just a little sad as you walk down that aisle on Commencement night.

Think back to the many things we've done together as a class: the junior and senior class skating parties will always stand out as a good time in our memories, the Junior Prom will be another event which we will look back on with pride, the football games, the open houses, the F.F.F.F., the All-Girls' Slumber Parties—there are so many things which will be remembered as happy times.

Perhaps this editorial is somewhat sentimental and some will not regard Commencement as a time for sentiment, but there are few people who will walk across that stage to receive their diplomas and not feel a mixture of joy and tears.

Student Council Members Elected 'Moon Glows' at Senior 'Picnic'

Once more the elections for Student Council representatives and alternates were held in each homeroom. These representatives will serve next year's Student Council under the leadership of President Jack Freund.

Vice President Dick Horowitz, Secretary Joann Seidenfeld, Business Manager Jim Petznick, Co-treasurers Carole Goldman and Dottie Dedo, and Assistant Treasurers for athletics Bruce Berger and Joe Keyerleber are the other officers.

Next year's senior homeroom representatives and alternates are, respectively: C. Sheila Weisberg and Jerry Yonas, 104, George Donahower and Frank Crouse, 205, Mike Rocker and Louise Rose, 214, Peter Bergman and Bill Atkinson, 219, Phyllis Burkons and Nancy Canto, 221, Bill Hallett and Kathy Herron, 222, Bob Fisher and Phyllis Genuth, 300, Jerry Jaffe and Phyllis Kaplan, 306, Eric Larsen and Myrna London, 307, Sanford Luria and Valerie Mihalka, 308, Mike Partington and Eddie Passov, 310, Ken Torda and Nancy Schweid, 312, Dick Tressel and Donna Thompson.

Next year's junior representatives and alternates are, respectively: 100, Lauretta Battle and Tom Benson; 111, Mel Cohen and Martha Brouwer, 112, Lorraine Cox and Caroline Cole; 115, John Dickey and Shelley Feren, 116, Chuck Frankel and Jerry Fritz; 117, Seth Harris and Judy Greenberger; 118, Ed Hennig and Betsy Hawes; 200, Carol Korman and Ed Jeffrey; 201, Jane Linke and Tom Lenhart; 203, Bob Meyer and David Metz; 204, Judy Ostlund and Anne Ongemach; 217, Jerry Rosenthal and Carolyn Richards; 232, Jon Shaw and Marilyn Sanson; 233, John Smith and Judy Stark; 304, Pat Tunder and Paula Walsh; 311, Bill Wedren and Fran Young.

First it was a play, then a movie then a song, and now the senior class has taken it over!

We are speaking of none other than the senior "picnic" which took place Tuesday, May 29. The atmospheric location was the Upper Squaw Rock Shelter House where everyone gathered at 4:00 p.m. Transportation was provided by chartered busses.

Able co-chairmen of the whole affair were Sally Stillinger and Carol Finney. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, potato salad, cokes, and cupcakes, were provided by Ruth Ann Hurt and her committee of Roberta Rubenstein and Chuck Kahn.

For amusement, baseball, relays, and hiking were organized by Marge Haag with the help of her committee, Mike Gavlak, Jim Bialosky, and Dick Weiss.

The clean-up job was performed by Jim Adler, Connie Lewis, and Ellen Passan.

small auditorium and the library for those who will not be able to see it.

Dr. Howard J. Brown, minister of the Church of the Saviour, will give the invocation. The A Cappella will sing two pieces appropriate for the occasion. Guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Alfred Bryan Bonds, Jr., president of Baldwin-Wallace College. The subject of his address will be "Success Equals C. W. C." Mr. Rupp will present the graduating class to the audience. This year the task of giving out diplomas will be taken over by the president of the Board of Education, Mr. E. Colin Baldwin. As their finale, the seniors will sing the Alma Mater for the last time as Shaker High School students. The graduates and their relatives are invited to a reception which will be held either outdoors or in the girls gym depending upon the weather.

PrexyMcArtLeads Social Council Set

At the last meeting of the Social Council, the officers for next year were elected. They are as follows:

Roger McArt: President
Bob Markey: Vice President
Nancy Croley: Recording Secretary
Joyce Neiditz: Corresponding Secretary
Bob Roth: Treasurer

The new representatives, who were elected in their home rooms recently, were invited to attend this meeting.

Senior Representatives are: H.R. 214, Lloyd Baccus and Louise Abrams, H.R. 219, Martin Carter and Louis Body; H.R. 104, Larry Edelman and Barbara Dupont; H.R. 222, Sandra Friedman and Dennis Ganun; H.R. 221, Douglas Havighurst and Diane Hartman; H.R. 300, Jack Houser and Fred Jurek; H.R. 306, David Lazar and Joan Koerner; H.R. 307, Peggy Maroney and Janet Mitchell; H.R. 308, Nancy Oviatt and Linda Perlman; H.R. 205, Barbara Sacks and Alice Rogan; H.R. 310, Robert Shapiro and Ann Smith; H.R. 312, Linda Sugarman and Albina Tesmer; H.R. C, Lewis Zipkin and Gwynn Williams.

The Junior Representatives are: H.R. 100, Thomas Benson and Joy Berger, H.R. 111, Sarah Carter and Mimi Bookatz; H.R. 112, Dennis Crumline and John Cox; H.R. 115, Patricia Digby and Suzanne Dougherty, H.R. 116, Ellen Fox and Carol Friedman; H.R. 117, Warren Grossman and Polly Ham; H.R. 118, Dale Hugel and Adele Horwitz; H.R. 200, Betsy Jones and Catherine Kahn, H.R. 201, Tootie Mandell and Bonnie Krenitz; H.R. 203, Peggy Leunk and Nancy Mitnick; H.R. 204, Shirley Patmore and Janet Pettay; H.R. 217, Tom Prior and Judy Reinfeld; H.R. 232, Ronald Rudolph and Linda Sager; H.R. 233, Suzy Slavin and Marjory Simon; H.R. 304, James Warburton and Ken Suid; H.R. 311, Joyce Zucker and Lee Yearly.

The Social Council strives to plan a well-rounded social program. They plan the dances, open houses, and the other social functions enjoyed by all Shakerites. They are responsible for the operation of the Snack Bar and the upkeep of the scrapbook. Gwynn Williams and Louise Abrams were chosen to keep up the scrap book which is always available to students in the Social Room.

The officers will work together to try to please the majority of Shakerites by planning an interesting and diversified social program.

A vote of thanks is due to this year's Social Council officers and members for a job well done.

FAREWELL ADDRESS

One score and sixteen weeks ago, Mr. Randall brought forth upon this paper two idiots, conceived in a reckless moment, and dedicated to the proposition that everyone reads the social column. Shakerites may little note nor long remember what we have written here, but we know the editors will never forget us. We leave this column to two unsuspecting people in the hopes that gossip of the students, by the cynics, and for the social climbers shall not perish from the earth.

Congratulations to:

- 1) Sue Harrison on catching up with the rest of us. Happy "sour seventeen", Sue. Speaking of birthdays, let us not forget the party given for Lou Body and Tom Baldwin by their chemistry class, cake and all.
- 2) The Biedermans for finally getting their licenses. Everyone should be sure to "look twice" before crossing!
- 3) Jack Fejes and Janis Suid on their coming respective marriages to Lois Early and Ronald Cohen.
- 4) We understand that the executive board of the student council was entertained for lunch by Mr. and Mrs. Klyver.

Seasick Starlight Stomp Stumped

We're sorry to say that the last dance of the year was rather poorly attended. However, a few couples seen "on board" were Kate Kramer and Dick Danford, Ann Collins with Paul Herringshaw, Judy Rosenberg and Dick Cowan, Jean Cox and Ron Smith, Linda Beamer and Pete Lenhart, Mike Gavalak and Barb Dale, Marilyn Goodman and Jerry Yonas, Charlie Gubelmann with Sally Stillinger. As we part from these hallowed halls, our class leaves to the elbow room jukebox these tunes.

- 1) "No, Not Now" from Nancy Williams.
- 2) "The Happy Whistler" from Pete Harwood.
- 3) "The High and the Mighty" from Dennis Tamscin.
- 4) "Little White Lies" from Joyce Schaffer.
- 5) "Anything You Kahn Do I Kahn Do Better" from Peggy Fox.
- 6) "Greensleeves" from Janie Watterson.
- 7) "Standing on the Corner" from A Lightpost.

We also leave behind the ideal boy and girl from the senior class.

Saying of the Month: by Marilyn Evans and Mary Kronheim "Dennis, anyone?"

Well, Jud, this is it—the beginning of the end. It's been a lot of fun for us, and we hope for you, too. Best of luck to the junior and sophomore classes next year at Shaker High.

When caps and gowns become the style
And seniors walk in double file
How many wear a happy smile?—Nobody!

For when we put it to the test
Compare it 'round with all the rest
Who'd say that Shaker's not the best?—NOBODY.

Spring--When Gals Are Buoyant and Boys Are Gallant

THIS is the season when nature and Shaker come to life, when the campus is crowded with gay cotton skirts and short-sleeved shirts. Long before the first crocus had made its appearance in the court, the track, golf, and baseball teams were "knee deep" in practice. The Shakers were rehearsing every day for their pageant, "Aqualympics." Students were gazing wistfully out the window, while teachers were rushing to prepare them for finals. Every weekend was crowded with productions and social events: "The Creation," the Starlight Stomp, and "Mrs. McThing." And finally Honor Day arrived, to climax a year full of wonderful memories.

Soph Stuff

By John Ferguson

Note: As this is the last issue of the year, the editors, moved by the sadness of the occasion, have agreed to print my column in black.

Sophomores certainly caused a stir at the Hi-Y picnic. Besides having coke fights and running underneath the falls, the sophs attending ate like mad. That is, the boys ate like mad; the poor girls were dieting. Among those present were Bob Meyer, Harriet Bebout, Tom Yost, Martha Brouwer, and Robbi Cox.

Noted in Passing

Jon Green who always has a joke to tell.

Sighs and groans when sophs found out the results of the Co-operative Tests. Gary Schwartz was very disappointed when he learned that he had a percentile rating of 99 in algebra.

A few weeks ago girls could be seen in every corner of the building practicing cheers, in quest of one of the honored positions as cheerleader. When final tryouts were over and the results were announced, three sophs, Ellen Sherby, Peggy Leunk, and Pat Tenbeau, were among the winners. Congratulations, girls!

With sweat suits and spikes the JayVee trackmen practice diligently everyday after school. Sophs on the squad are John Harston, Bud Rainin, Tony Paul, Dick Powell, Bob Piwonka, Eugene Cohen, Hugh Burkons, Ken Suid, Chuck Florian, Bob Frischmuth, and Carl Herbold.

In closing let me leave you with a quip from Mr. Cramer: "Atom bombs come in three sizes: small, medium, and where is everybody?"

Shaker Sees Revolution; Social Studies Students Take Over Government

Paul Femberg, Mayor of Shaker Heights; Chuck Kahn, Finance Director of Shaker Heights; Tom Hubbard, Shaker Heights Police Chief—a preview of Shaker's municipal government of years to come? No, only a part of the proceedings when Shaker students took over the city government for a day in a Rotary Club-sponsored project.

Other governmental positions were temporarily filled by Neil Ruben, Penny Johns, Patsy Wagenhals, Paul Roskoph, Laurel Schauer, and Maurice Zilber.

Mayor Stapleton extended a warm welcome, and after short speeches by others present, distributed the commissions to those who would hold offices. Law Director Ralph W. Jones administered the oath of office. Then each office-holder went with the person who regularly holds the post to learn the duties and services

Telzrow and Krupnick Triumph In Bid for Class Leadership

The tension and excitement of elections are over. Shakerites have chosen their new class leaders, who are already beginning to plan next year's activities.

Heading the slate of the junior class officers is Jon Krupnick, a member of Boosters, Honor Study Hall, and the sophomore Nominating Committee. He will be aided by Chuck Bishop, who was elected to the office of vice-president. Chuck is a member of the J.V. football and swimming teams, and is also serving as president of his homeroom. Anticipating her duties as secretary, is Harriet Bebout, service chairman of the sophomore chapter of Y-Teen and homeroom secretary. Dave Smith, a member of J.V. basketball and Hi-Y, will assume the duties of treasurer, and Irene Stifel, social chairman of Y-Teen and homeroom Social Council representative, will offer her experiences as social chairman of the junior class.

Hi-Y and Varsity football member Curt Telzrow will lead the senior class next year. In the office of vice-president will be Mike Partington. Mike is a Booster captain, Student Council representative, and was recently elected president of the O.A.S.C. Looking forward to her duties as secretary, is Jinny Sifritt, who is a member of Shares and Varsity sports. Art Geigel, Junior Hi-Y representative to the City Wide Council, and homeroom Social Council representative, will serve as treasurer. Cheerleader Betsy Karch, who was also recently elected president of Swimming Leaders, will perform the duties of social chairman for the senior class.

Potpourri of Thought

Somerset Maugham's advice to aspiring authors—write for entertainment and leave philosophy to the philosophers. . . .

An indignant Princeton student wrote to the Plain Dealer in defense of Alger Hiss' talk on the Yalta Conference which Hiss gave at Princeton. The P. D. suggested that next time the University might invite a safecracker to speak about law enforcement. . . .

People who smoke pipes are intellectuals. Only an egotist would use a cigarette holder. . . .

Fat people are usually more mild tempered, jolly, and susceptible to hypertension than thin people. . . .

I never hear the public criticize Dave Garroway (Today, Wide World, and Monitor) for being on the air too much the way they do with Arthur Godfrey. I think that proves that the public does not tire of intelligence. . . .

Sometimes I wonder about William Saroyan. I admire the man for being different, but his not using quotation marks is a little hard to take. . . .

Senator Kefauver will not win the Democratic nomination. . . .

Ken's Comments

By Ken Koblit

It's never hard to look back on a particular game or season and say what would have improved it and made it more successful. Let's look back on the spring sports of 1956, and see how Shaker fared.

The track team had one of its best squads in recent years, and they will try to finish the year on a glorious note tomorrow night when they go after the Lake Erie League championship at Lakewood. Shaker's thinclads dropped two dual meets by narrow margins to Maple Heights and Lakewood, two of the best teams in the area. They journeyed to the talent-loaded Mansfield Relays and finished tenth in a ninety team field. Things weren't so tough at the Hilltop Meet, in which the Raiders breezed to an easy win.

The following weeks saw Shaker entered in the tough West Tech Relays, where they finished fifth, and the next week the Red and White broke five records in sweeping the Euclid Relays for the fourth straight year. In the district qualifier for the state finals, the Raiders hit their peak, placing second.

Spearheading this year's cinder-men was Pete Harwood, who ran in the 100, 440, 220, and both relays and turned in some of the finest time in the state in the 220 and 440. Bill Benson lost only once in the 880 and Bob Mears ran undefeated in the mile. Dennis Tamesin lost only once in the hurdles and Bill Carlson stood out in the weight events.

The tennis team stretched their victory string to 19 before bowing to U.S. They won the district championship and sent Tony Haber, Doug Ganim, and Corky Maniaci to the state tournament. Besides these three, Dick Inglis, Dave Seidenfeld, Dave Luke, Bob Newman and Bob Lowe played well for the netters.

The golf team so far has won all honors in sight, including the Lake Erie League, and District championships. Outstanding players for the Raider linksmen were Dale Huge, Loren Roth, Bruce Kloppman and Jeff Krueger. Also seeing action were Bob Roth, Mike Preisler, and Dave Jacobson.

Mr. Heinlen's baseball team was not so successful, and so far, they have not won a game. They began the season without heavy hitter Chuck Kahn, and lost their first game to district champion Benedictine. After that they lost pitcher Ed Anzalone for the season. He was counted on for hitting as well as pitching.

Netters Edge U.S., Win City Laurels!

The Shaker tennis team edged their traditional rivals, University School, 3-2 at the Preppers' home courts to gain their 19th consecutive victory. U.S. has been the toughest opponent the Shaker netters have faced.

Playing at the number one spot, Shaker's Doug Ganim tangled with Jack Herrick of U.S. in the feature match. Herrick played extremely well and overpowered Ganim with his smashing serve. After dropping the first set, Ganim rallied in the set to make the score 5-5, but he was finally nosed out 6-3, 7-5.

Tony Haber, playing second singles for Shaker, conquered Lou Goodman of U.S. 6-3, 6-0. Haber won many of his points by well-placed overheads which Goodman was unable to reach. At third singles, Crocky Maniac, playing singles for the first time this year, lost a close match to John Weil of U.S. 6-2, 6-3. Adding another victory for Shaker was the first doubles team of Bob Lowe and Dick Inglis, who beat their opponents 7-5, 7-5. Both Lowe and Inglis played well and had the other team under control.

Raiders Go in L.E.L. Tomorrow, Rice in Quest of First Title

A few issues back track coach Bob Rice expressed optimism when questioned about this year's cinder brigade, and track fans who watched the District Meet at John Adams Field now know a few of his reasons.

Finishing second to John Adams, one point ahead of third place East Tech, the Raiders qualified 10 individuals and its mile relay for the state finals at Columbus. This outstanding performance boosts Shaker's stock in the Lake Erie League meet tomorrow night at Lakewood.

Bill Carlson qualified in the discus and shot put, by finishing third and fourth respectively in his specialties. Bob Mears finished second in the mile run and rates as a definite threat at the state meet. Mears and Carlson will also be potent performers for the thinclads in the league contest.

As usual, Pete Harwood turned in a superman performance by copping blue ribbons in the 440, 220, and notching third place in the 100. His times were respectively 50.7, 22.3, and 10.1. Harwood is, of course, Shaker's space-in-the-hole for the league meet because of his chances of winning three events.

Dennis Tamesin qualified in both hurdles events, running second in the highs and fourth in the lows. He, too, is counted on for points at Lakewood, having lost only to Jim Angle of Shaw in the lows this year. Bill Benson finished third in the 880, and it took a record breaking performance to beat him. His chances at State are good and he is the defending Lake Erie League 880 champ, but he has lost to Joe Russo of Shaw.

Lynn Hammond finished third in the pole vault to qualify for Columbus and he should pick up points tomorrow night. Also qualifying was the Raider mile relay team of Goodman, Benson, West, and Jack Brown.

Tomorrow night, Shaker's chances of winning the League Meet are the best they have ever been. The meet gets under way at 7:00.

Tigers Triumph Over Shaker Nine

Hampered by poor fielding and the lack of steady pitching, the Red Raider baseball squad went down to defeat before the Heights Tigers for the second time this year by the score of 7-2 on Monday, May 21.

Shaker was held hitless for the first three innings, while the Tigers rapped starting pitcher Lou Body for four runs in the first inning to jump into a commanding lead. After a shaky start, Body settled down and held Heights scoreless until the fourth inning.

Shaker pushed their first run across in the fourth inning after Lavdas and German singled and Kahn walked to fill the bases. Lavdas scored on an infield out, but the Raiders were unable to score again in that inning.

Left-hander Tom Lenhart was brought into the game in the fifth inning but was tagged for three runs. Robbie Cox relieved in the sixth inning. With two outs in the sixth inning, Kahn singled and then went to third on an error which allowed German to reach first safely. By using the double steal strategy, Kahn was able to score as the Heights catcher threw to second in an attempt to cut down German who was stealing.

Sloppy fielding again hurt the Raiders in this game as it had in most of the other games of the season. Shaker committed four costly errors which helped the Tiger cause considerably.

The hitting this year has been fairly good. Infielder Jim Lavdas is leading the squad in batting with 11 hits in 30 times at bat for a .367 average. Bill German is close behind with 12 hits for 34 times at bat for a .353 average. Buddy Fisher is next in line with an even .300, three hits in 10 trips to the plate.
